Overview

Brady L. Dreasher entered the art field in 1998 and has served the arts industry as an appraiser, artist's representative, broker, art fair VIP director during Art Basel, exhibition curator, consignment contract negotiator, estate consultant, auction conductor, collector, private-treaty acquisition consultant, expert witness (deposing & testifying), and collection manager. After starting Original Art Brokerage in 2000 while attending Wichita State University, the company's name was changed in 2010 as it grew and transitioned into the nationally known and regionally recognized Personal Property Appraisal Firm known as Art of Estates.

As a member of the Better Business Bureau (accredited locations from Aspen to Indianapolis), Indy Chamber, and Angie's List with an A+ rating, Art of Estates director Dreasher brings a spectrum of experience to the evaluation field. After spending 10 years selling fine art privately and subsequently 5 more years with Kansas' largest privately-owned retail art gallery, Dreasher performed auctions, estate sales, and eventually dedicated himself entirely to the appraisal industry. This foundation of knowledge coupled with educational training from trusted associations by attending more than 17 conferences and 53 antique and art fairs (including satellite fairs at Art Basel) across the United States since 2009 adding even more experience to his company's professional profile. He has provided deposition and testimony three times since January 2018 for personal property in marital dissolution divorce proceedings. Art of Estates, at Dreasher's pursuit, is also a professional member with the American Wine Society with a Level 1 Certification with the Wine & Spirits Educational Trust from London, United Kingdom.

Dreasher is the recipient of the International Society of Appraiser's 2015 Leadership Award, a member of four respected appraisal organizations and was previously a member of multiple International Society of Appraiser committees. He has been featured in the coveted publications of the Miami Art Guide, Kansas City Public Television (KCPT), Hollywood Sentinel, Dallas Paper City Magazine, Kansas Public Television (KPTS), Indianapolis Monthly, Antique Trader Magazine, Art-Collecting of Seattle, and Ocean Drive Magazine of Miami. Dreasher's also been televised on Channel 12 KWCH News of Kansas, Channel 10 KAKE-TV News of Wichita, KPTS Channel 8, and broadcast radio stations KCLY of Kansas and WIBC of Indianapolis, Indiana.
